After transferring to the hotel, you will have the remainder of the evening at leisure (no other services included this evening).

BEIJING

Forbidden City

DAY 2

FRIDAY OCTOBER 7 B / L / D

Whether by force of irony or expediency, China's government has been located in the same area continuously for over six hundred years. You will walk back in time; strolling across Tian'anmen Square, one of the largest squares of the modern era, you will pass the Monument to the People's Heroes - - dedicated to the ravages of the hundred year long Opium War -- and finally enter the ancient epicenter of Imperial Power, the Forbidden City.

We arrange for special access to Chonghuagong, a section of the Forbidden City that is normally closed to the general public. Please note that Chonghuagong is filled with antiques and in the event that the weather is particularly rainy/humid, the authorities will not grant access.

In the afternoon, we explore old Peking's traditional alleyways (called hutong). Our visit to the Hutong Museum shows how China's revolutionary politics changed these residential areas. After, we compare these developments to the now gentrified areas by the Imperial lake; bicycle repair stalls make way for double car garages, the din of bustling crowds is appeased by the trill of birdsong and disheveled structures yield to beautifully restored exclusive courtyard homes, now once more housing the business and political leaders of China.

Great Wall

DAY 3

SATURDAY OCTOBER 8

B / L

Today, you will visit the Great Wall of China. Built to protect China from the incursions of predatory nomads, the utility and meaning of this fortification has been contested for centuries. The unprecedented scale and unexpected charm of the Great Wall may inspire you. The section that we most highly recommend is the further away, about 2.5 hours drive, but is generally considered one of the most beautiful sections of the Great Wall. Once there, you will be treated to a private banquet on the Wall itself (weather permitting). After lunch you will be given some time for a stroll along this most magnificent of sites.

BEIJING

Summer Palace

DAY 4

SUNDAY OCTOBER 9

For shoppers, Beijing's largest open-air market will come close to paradise. Here you will mingle with Beijingers, overseas and local art dealers as well as farmers who import goods from the countryside. This is your opportunity to buy a Ming dynasty set of the Confucianist classics for a song or else, and more likely, to buy from an astonishingly rich variety of Chinese and Tibetan cultural objects (at usually a tenth the price found in the U.S. and at often half the price found at local shops). For non-shoppers, this market can be thought of as China's largest museum of modern cultural life, where you can see, talk to and photograph a wide range of local and regional Chinese going about their daily lives and business.

Afterwards, we take a tour of the Imperial Summer Palace, a retreat said to have been given to the Empress Dowager Cixi in return for political favors. Whether or not you believe the popular demonization of this female leader, she certainly had taste. Her enchanting mansion, set on 700 acres of land, incorporates stunning temples, arched bridges, capacious pavilions and the world's longest covered corridor, all within a landscape crafted according to the dictates of fengshui.

Temple of Heaven

MONDAY OCTOBER 10 B/L/D

This morning we will visit the Temple of Heaven – a Confucianist complex spanning 670 acres – created for the exclusive use of the Emperor as a place to mediate affairs between God and man. Morning is a wonderful time to visit the Temple as you will see local Beijingers out doing their morning exercises.

This afternoon, you will fly to Xi'an, where in the evening you will enjoy a private dumpling-making and noodle-throwing lesson by expert chefs.

(Sofitel Legend People's Grand Hotel – Superior Room)

XI'AN GUILIN

Terracotta Warriors

DAY 6

TUESDAY OCTOBER 11 B/L/D

Competing Chinese kingdoms were united for the first time within a Chinese empire by the virile King Zheng, of the Kingdom of Qin. Many claim that this first Imperial dynasty of “Qin” (pronounced “chin”) gives English the etymological root for the name “China”. China's first ever Emperor, known as Qinshihuangdi, designated Xi'an the capital of his rule. He arranged for an underground army to be buried in his tomb. These are the stunning Terracotta Warriors, which you will visit this morning.

In the afternoon we fly south towards the Guangxi Autonomous Region. “I often sent pictures of the hills of Guilin which I painted to friends back home,” wrote Song Dynasty (960-1279 CE) scholar Fan Chengda, “but few believed what they saw.” Take a stroll around the grounds and the neighboring countryside to savor the China of traditional scroll paintings: poetic karst landscapes where peasants and water buffaloes plow the fields.

Upon arrival, you will be joined by a locally based guide and transferred to your hotel.

DAY 7

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 12 B / L

A glance at a Chinese 20-yuan bill will identify the scenery through which we are cruising today: that of the Li River system, where you will take a leisurely ride on a traditional bamboo raft. This emerald ribbon meanders through a multitude of hills and peaks mirrored by the water below. On drizzly days, the mists embrace the peaks and lend the scenery an eerie beauty.

In the afternoon, you will travel far from the tourist trail and deep into the countryside for a rare view of agricultural life. Despite China's global superpower status and ongoing economic miracle, between 600 and 800 million out of 1.3 billion people continue to work in this sector. You will wander through the rice paddies and learn how to make soy milk and tofu from villagers.

THURSDAY OCTOBER 13 B / L

This morning has been left free, and with good reason. This is one of your best chances to enjoy a little down time. You may wish to go for a swim in one of the hotels pools or perhaps take a stroll along the river.

Following lunch we fly you to Shanghai. This city will take your breath away. Since the early 80's Shanghai has been growing like no other, the Pudong waterfront becoming as emblematic of economic prowess as that of Manhattan or Hong Kong. Before dinner, you will have a chance to walk or drive along the Bund, taking in some of the loveliest buildings in the city.
